

Chapter 4 Study Guide

Name: _____

Lesson 1

1. Who founded Massachusetts and why?
2. Who established Pennsylvania and why?
3. What is a cash crop and which one made Virginia and Maryland successful?

Lesson 2

1. In New England towns, where did people both worship and govern?
2. At what "event" would people make decisions about laws and workers?
3. Where would farmers trade crops in the middle colonies?
4. What three places did the triangular trade route connect?
5. Which of the following economic activities helped cities grow along the coast: dairy farming, whaling, growing tobacco and indigo?
6. How did young people learn a specific job?
7. What was the land called that lies between the Coastal Plain and the Appalachian Mountains?
8. What is a loft?

Lesson 3

1. Who owned plantations in the southern colonies?
2. It was important to build plantations along what?
3. What did planters use to buy goods instead of money?
4. Who helped farmers sell their product at market and get what they needed?
5. What do you call a person who had to work off debt without pay for a certain period of time?
6. What "resource" allowed farmers to work the large amounts of land they owned?

7. What did planters' daughters learn to do?
8. Why were there very few schools in the southern colonies?

Lesson 4

1. What did the Spanish learn from the natives?
2. Describe the relationship between settlers and the natives over time.
3. What do you call the natives that traded with settlers for other tribes.

Lesson 5

1. What group (similar to Congress) made laws for all British people?
2. What new lands did we take from the French after the French and Indian War?
3. How did the colonists have to pay for the war?

SHORT ANSWER

Where were each of these shipped from and to on the triangular trade route?

Manufactured goods -

Slaves -

Raw materials -

Indentured servants -

List three exports and five imports of the colonies:

EXPORTS	IMPORTS
a.	a.
b.	b.
c.	c.

ESSAY - Describe plantation life. Explain who owned them, who worked on them, what each person was responsible for, where they were located, and what crops they grew.

STUDY EVERYTHING ELSE FOR THE BONUS QUESTIONS!!!