Grandfather Mountain

Wen I look at Grandfather Mountain I see bears on the slopes and cautious white-tailed deer, eagles and vicous panthers, groundhogs and woodchucks, a flock of wild turkeys and a red-tailed hawk, blue Jays and squirrels.

The preshius fleeting bloom of spring, the sensashional crimson hues of autumn, in winter the glashier at the summit—a lake of ice, rocky and wild.

When I look at Grandfather Mountain I see that anciant mountain smiling down on me.
