Time Out

(Nico is in his room, working on a school project Eric enters.)

Nico (sighing with frustration): I don't mean to critisize, but you're always tardy, Eric.

Eric (taking off his jacket): Yeah, I'm sorry. I just wanted to finish watching my favorite TV program.

Nico: If you repete this pattern, we'll never finish this histery project, or I'll end up doing most of the work myself. It's supposed to be a combenation of our work.

Eric (shrugging with resignation): I said I was sorry. It seems like time just flies by.

Nico: I know. But it's important that you be here on time. If we miss the deadline, we'll be the laughingstock of the acadimy. I'll let you borrow my watch until this project is finished if you promise me you'll be prompt from now on. Is that a deal?

Eric (breaking into a broad grin): Sure. I'll try to be more ackademic.

Nico: Okay then. Now let's get to work.
